About Wesley College Men's Lacrosse:

Bill Gorrow, Wesley college Men's lacrosse Coach, under his leadership Wesley enjoyed its best season since 2000 finishing with 11 wins. Five Wesley players were named to the All CAC All Star team and two Wolverine players were named 2009 All Americans. Wesley earned a spot in the CAC playoffs advancing to the conference semi-finals and a bid to the ECAC Championships.

Camp Goals

- Teach the offensive and Defensive concepts that have led Wesley to be one of the premier programs in college lacrosse.
- Advanced instruction by professional college coaches, assisted by Wesley College players.
- Low coach to player ratio for maximum individual development and attention
- Goalie School—specialized instruction
- Face-off clinic

Camp Features

- Personal Instruction Periods Daily
- Positional instruction and team instruction
- Certified Athletic Trainers
- Work with college coaches every session

Who and Why?

The Offense Defense Camp is designed for boys who will enter the 8th and 9th grade in the fall of 2010. Reacting to requests from numerous high school coaches that we provide intense and in-depth instruction to their top middle school and high school players on the skills strategies and techniques of the game that will bring their games to the next level as they prepare for the last recreation lacrosse season or begin the tryout
